

Keith Hampton

Attorney at Law

1103 Nueces Street

Austin, Texas 78701

512-476-8484

762-6170

hamplaw@swbell.net

Keith S. Hampton named "super-lawyer" in 2003 Texas Monthly and Law and Politics Magazine. Won Texas Criminal Defense Lawyers Association President's Award in 2003, 2002, 2001, 1999, 1995 and 1993. Ambassador Award from the Austin Criminal Defense Lawyer Association 1999. Served on the faculty of Advanced Criminal Law Course for the State Bar of Texas. Lobbyist for Texas Criminal Defense Lawyers Association since 1995. Served on the Association's Amicus Committee as well as Governor Bush's Ad Hoc Advisory Committee to Revise the Code of Criminal Procedure. Articles include Children in the War on Crime: Texas Sex Offender Mania and the Outcasts of Reform (2002) and Parole Law Instruction and Jury Misconduct, (1993). Appellate counsel in over 30 published cases. Practice includes death penalty litigation. B.A. from University of Texas at Austin in 1984, and J.D. from St. Mary's University School of Law, San Antonio, Texas 1989. Licensed to practice in all state trial and appellate courts, United States Supreme Court, U.S. Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals, and federal district court.