

William Allison

Clinical Professor of Law
University of Texas School of Law
727 East Dean Keeton Street
Austin, Texas 78705
512.232.1463 (Office)
512.471.3489 (Fax)
Director, Criminal Defense Clinic
Director, Texas Center for Actual Innocence

William Allison Clinical Professor of Law at University of Texas School of Law, Austin. Director of Criminal Defense Clinic, Co-director of the Actual Innocence Clinic and President of the Texas Center for Actual Innocence, University of Texas School of Law. Mr. Allison was adjunct member of the faculty for 27 years. Licensed in Texas in 1971 and has practiced at all levels of the state and federal court systems. Board Certified in Criminal Law, member of the Texas Bar Foundation and the College of the State Bar of Texas. Taught over fifty National Institute for Trial Advocacy based courses including seven National and Advanced National NITA courses. Past Editor-in-Chief of Voice for the Defense. In 2000, he obtained the DNA-based exoneration of Carlos Lavernia and in conjunction with the University of Wisconsin School of Law's Innocence Clinic obtained the exoneration of Christopher Ochoa, also based on DNA. Both were serving life sentences. In June 2001, he was named Criminal Defense Lawyer of the Year.